

大谱表与钢琴键盘对照表

The diagram illustrates the correspondence between a grand staff and a piano keyboard. The keyboard is divided into groups: '大字一组' (Large Letter Group 1), '大字组' (Large Letter Group), '小字组' (Small Letter Group), '中央C' (Central C), '小字一组' (Small Letter Group 1), '小字二组' (Small Letter Group 2), '小字三组' (Small Letter Group 3), and '小字四组' (Small Letter Group 4). Each key is labeled with its letter name (A, B, C, D, E, F, G) and its solfège name (la, si, do, re, mi, fa, sol). The grand staff shows the same sequence of notes across two staves, with the bass staff starting on a lower octave and the treble staff starting on a higher octave.
